MAY FURNISH POWER.

Many Think it Would be a Saving to Patronize Consolidated.

Some little negotiations have been in progress for a time past between the Electric & Water company and the Consolidated Water Power & Paper company for the purpose of disposing of what could be done toward securing electricity from the Consolidated people to distribute among the patrons of the Electric and Water Co. However, nothing definite has been done up to the present time. Since the raise in the rates by the local company and the fact that the raise was necessary in order to meet the needs of the plant, it has set a number of people to thinking along this line and it is beginning to dawn on the general public that there is an immense amount of power going to waste at this point that might as well be utilized by the citizens of Grand Rapids, as allowed to pass down the river.

While the Tribune has no authority for saying so, it is evident to all that the Consolidated people could furnish electricity cheaper to the Electric and Water company than they can generate it by the use of coal and wood. The company is now charging from 8 to 15 cents a kilowatt for electricity for lighting purposes, and this is at the rate of something like one thousand dollars a horsepower per year. In the first offer made by the Consolidated they offered power at $30 per horse power, or something like half a cent a kilowatt. However, this offer was only to cover a period of two years, and the company did not see fit to accept it on this account.

In a country where coal has to be hauled many hundreds of miles and where the wood supply is almost a thing of the past, it seems a waste of money to continue the use of these commodities when the power necessary is going to waste. Even the current supplied by the Consolidated might cost fully as much as it does to generate it by steam, which would not be necessary, there would still be a saving thru the patronizing of a home industry.

It is to be hoped that this matter can be fixed up in a manner that will be acceptable to all parties and thus not only save the citizens some money but also make it possible to use a certain amount of the power that has heretofore been going to waste.

A Rise in Beef.

When Sever Johnson went to his barn on Tuesday morning he was surprised to find the cow missing. He supposed at first that the animal had wandered away somewhere, but investigation showed that the barn was closed and that it would have been impossible for the cow to get away. After some little search he went to the hayrack where the animal was found, and he found that he had received a visit from some boys who had been playing hallowe'en pranks, and that they had put the cow in the loft. Saver says that if the boys had as much trouble in getting the cow into the loft as he had in getting her down, that they earned all the fun they got out of it.

Ballot Blanket Size.

The secretary of state has sent to the county clerk the information for the printing of the official ballot for the coming election on Nov. 8th. The ballot will be 24x36 inches in size and there will be seven columns for party nominations in the following order: Democratic, Labor, National Republican, People's Party, Prohibition, Republican and Social Democrat. The size of the old ballots will be altogether too small to accommodate a voter and a ballot as large as this, and there may be some difficulty in marking the same. There will be two columns for individual nominations, making nine in all outside the columns for title of offices.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation, all yield to this perfect pill. 25c at Daily Drug & Jewelry Co.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Saturday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McCamley and in order to properly celebrate the event a number of their friends called at the home on Sunday evening and treated them to a genuine surprise. Mrs. M. McCamley was one of the chief instigators of the affair, and she secured about twenty five of the old friends of the family and they swarmed down onto the household that evening prepared to have a real old fashioned good time, and if the reports of the affair may be believed they had it. The guests brought with them a number of handsome silverware presents which they presented to Mr. and Mrs. McCamley as a token of the regard and esteem in which they hold this worthy couple, and when they departed for home it was the earnest wish of all that they might live at least another quarter century of wedded happiness. As entertainers Mr. and Mrs. McCamley were pronounced to be without peers.

Cohen Brothers Branch Out.

Cohen Bros., Joe and Nate, proprietors of the Fair store in this city and the Milwaukee store at Grand Rapids, have decided to open another store at Merrill, Wis. They have leased the building owned by Mrs. Alice Fleming and will open about the 10th of November. The store will be known as the Boston store. Joe Cohen of Grand Rapids was in the city Sunday on his way to Chicago to purchase the new stock. It is the intention of the Cohen Bros. to run this store on the same principle as their other two large stores, and in enlarging their field they can buy larger quantities, thereby getting greater reductions.

Mr. Nissenbaum, the manager, is a gentleman who has had fifteen years' experience in this business and the firm will undoubtedly have the same great success enjoyed at their already established stores.—Wausau Record.

Free Excursions.

On Saturday evening the republicans hired a train on the Wisconsin Central road and ran a free excursion to Marshfield in order to enable the people down here to listen to Mr. Joffris speak in that city and about $60 took advantage of the opportunity to visit Marshfield. On Monday night a train was run down from Marshfield and about six hundred people came down from there. They brought the Second Regiment band with them and they made a brave showing as they marched from the depot. The train pulled out again promptly at eleven o'clock and the result was that several who had figured on a few minutes' grace, were left in the city over night.

Drainage Case Settled.

Stevens Point Journal.—Through Park & Carpenter and W. B. Angelo, representing the organizers of the Portage county Drainage district, and Cate, Dahl & Nelson, acting in behalf of about thirty contestants, a compromise has been effected and a compromise litigation will be avoided. By the terms of the settlement these forty acre tracts of land which have been growing upon them will be omitted from the proposed district. There are some formalities to be gone through before the terms of settlement agreed upon will become binding, and some testimony will have to be taken. These matters, it is expected, will be presented to the court at the present term and then everything standing in the way of the improvement of the big marsh will have been eliminated.

A FITTING CANDIDATE.

Brief Sketch of Henry Fetzor, Democratic Candidate for Insurance Commissioner.

Mr. Fetzor's first business experience was as accountant in a large mercantile establishment in Milwaukee. In 1891 he came to Sturgeon Bay and commenced at the bottom of the ladder in the bank of Decker & Keogh. Rising rapidly in the confidence of his employers, he became, in 1896, when the institution was reorganized into the Bank of Sturgeon Bay, its cashier, and a stockholder therein.

At about this time the insurance agency of Decker & Fetzor was organized, and from this time on, Mr. Fetzor's advancement in the business world was rapid. With rare ability and integrity of the highest order as a basis, the foundation of his successes are as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar.

One year ago he was unanimously chosen for president of the Wisconsin Association of Fire Insurance Agents, and at the annual meeting of the association this fall, he was once again made the unanimous choice for president. While this is a position without compensation, yet it is an honor highly prized by leading insurance men of all states.

Mr. Fetzor still retains the position of cashier of the Bank of Sturgeon Bay, and has an abiding interest in the bank, and is a member of the board of directors of the bank, and of the insurance agency in which he is a partner with David Decker, of Chicago. He is a director of the A. & W. Ry., of the Bank of Green Bay, and a stockholder in the Bank of Brillion, Bank of Luxemburg, and in the Green Bay Insurance Agency.

That Mr. Fetzor is peculiarly well fitted for the position of state insurance commissioner, is candidly admitted by all; and even by leading politicians of the opposition. Prominent business men of all parties from every portion of the state, to whom the matter of insurance supervision on the part of the state is of the most vital importance, are supporting him from a purely business standpoint, a standpoint of special fitness or the duties of the office.

Here, in Door County, where he has lived since boyhood, he will have the vote of every Democrat, and of every near by Republican who will mark his ballot as the dictate of his heart and common sense.

Maps.

Robert Louis Stevenson, one of the most notable English writers known to the present generation, was wont to say that nothing interested him more than the perusal of a good map; and without doubt, a map that is well made and accurate catches the eye and arrests the attention of many people as few other things can do.

The men in charge of railway traffic possess a most positive appreciation of this fact and a large expenditure of time and skillful thought is made on this feature of railway publicity, so that such portion of the country as the mystic and interesting region of the Black Hills in South Dakota, the wonderful mountain ranges compactly rising tier upon tier throughout the central and western portion of Colorado, the rich valley and hillsides of California, covered with vineyards, orchards and grain fields, Yellowstone Park, the Yosemite, Alaska, and those regions of interlacing lakes and water courses which mark the portion of the great northwest located in upper Wisconsin, southern Minnesota and that part of Michigan known as the Upper Peninsula, have been mapped in detail and given to the public gratis, far and wide.

Said an official of the Chicago & North-Western Railway recently, while talking on this subject: "There is no doubt that the American railway map engender has carried his art well right to the borders of perfection. I do not know of any road maps or other detail data for the state of Wisconsin for instance, that equal those published by our passenger department, showing the haunts of some tourists and fishermen. They are on file in public libraries as part of their reference records. Other portions of the western country have been similarly taken up by our people and maps of a most complete character made for them; in fact, the western lines made for them are fully as good to the value of a good map in the hands of the traveler. The map publishing business of the large railway systems is today reduced to scientific principles and handled in a most systematic manner. The North-Western Line prints thousands of maps, running all the way from large wall maps of the world, down to the small details of sections and quarter sections of Government land open to settlement in the west, and from an atlas containing a series of maps of the seat of war in the far east to the most carefully worked out portrayal of Colorado's mountain regions, California's winter resorts, or the summering places that abound along the line throughout the west, and north west."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the flavor is similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Polesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. Otto's Pharmacy."

Building for Office.

Up in Burnett county at the last meeting of the county board that body raised the salary of the county clerk and treasurer to $800 per year, the salary before that having been but $200 per year.

Now there is a fellow comes out in one of the newspapers there and says that in view of the fact that all this money which is hoarded up and goes out of circulation, he will take one of the offices at $800 per year if the people will elect him. Just think of a man hoarding up and putting out of circulation $800 every year. Why its enough to make Anarchists of the best of us. Why if he held the office for two whole terms or a total of 4 years he would have put out of circulation the enormous sum of $3,200, provided of course, that he did not spend anything to live on nor never blow anything on the campaign. This is enough to bankrupt any nation, and it is a wonder that we have managed to get along as well as we have thus far.

This bidding for office is a new departure, and if the county board wants to save the people's money they might adopt the scheme of letting out all the county offices to lowest bidder.

For a Soldier's Monument.

One of our subscribers who is an old soldier and interested in the matter, has asked the Tribune to place before its readers the matter of voting for a soldier's monument this fall. It will be remembered that at the last years session of the county board, the matter of erecting a soldier's monument was brought up, and it was voted to leave the matter to the people of Wood county to vote on. The monument is not to exceed in price the sum of $3,000. Some people seem to think that $3,000 is a whole lot of money and will mean a great increase in their taxes, but such is not the case. A man whose property is assessed at 1,000 would only pay 23 cents of the costs of the monument, not a very large sum for the erection of a soldier's monument. The chance to vote on this proposition will be on the bottom of the regular ballot, and old soldiers should see that their friends express their sentiments along this line.

Mr. Stobbins Talks.

There was a large crowd assembled at the opera house on Monday evening to hear J. W. Stobbins tell the anti-war side of the political question, and it seemed by the applause that he elicited that those present were pretty generally in sympathy with his views. Mr. Stobbins is a good talker and he confined himself almost exclusively to the state issue and gave the people some facts and figures that should keep them thinking for some time. The Second Regiment band from Marshfield rendered several fine selections in the hall, much to the pleasure of those assembled.

A Perfidious Practice.

It is reported that a number of small boys have been making rounds of the business offices and residences of the city of late, begging for money with which to buy some article of wearing apparel which their appearance suggests they are really in need of. After receiving a donation the youngsters are said to hide themselves to the nearest candy store where a supply of sweetmeats are laid in. People should be very careful how they give to children as a bad experience may result in the making of a professional beggar out of what might otherwise be a useful citizen.

Won From Wausau.

The city football team went to Wausau on Sunday and played a game with the team there which was won by the locals by a score of 5 to 0. There were thirty-six went up from here and they report that the game was hard fought from start to finish. A distressing accident occurred during the game. A great deal of trouble was experienced in keeping the spectators off the grounds and one little fellow who ventured out too far was run into by a player and hurled to the ground so violently that one of his legs was broken in two places.

Burr Jones Coming.

On Friday evening, November 4, Burr W. Jones of Madison will speak at the opera house on the political issues of the day from a democratic standpoint. There are but few men in the state who are better known. There are no men who are admitted to be more honest in their convictions than he, and a talk from him should be interesting to both democrats and republicans alike. Take an evening off and hear Mr. Jones speak and you will not regret the time spent.

Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Otto's Pharmacy.

BUILDING ASSN. FORMED.

Officers Elected and Plans for Operation are Formed.

The members of the committee on building homes of the Advancement association got together on Tuesday afternoon and formed a building and loan association. The officers elected are as follows:

President—J. S. Thompson
Vice President—P. S. Gull
Treasurer—T. A. Taylor
Secretary—A. H. Kruger
Attorney—W. J. Conway
Director—E. Oberholtzer

The company has elected F. E. Woodworth of Cleveland, Ohio, as their solicitor. Mr. Woodworth is a man who has had considerable experience along this line and is competent to lay the plans of the association before the people in a clear and comprehensive manner.

The plan of the new association will be the same as that of the Racine association that has been so successful, and there is little doubt that the scheme will be equally successful here, possibly not on so large a scale. There would seem to be a good demand for an association of this sort in Grand Rapids as there are many working men here who are rent for their places of residence at the present time and who, no doubt, would be glad of the chance to own their own home. The outcome of the organization will be watched with a great deal of interest by a large number of people.

Missionary Meeting.

The missionary society of the Congregational church held an evening session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wood on Tuesday evening, and there were about eighty people present. The meeting had been held in the evening in order that the people might be present, and there were a large number that improved the opportunity to be there. A good program had been prepared for the evening, and during the evening services, many were saved, making a very pleasant time all the way thru.

German Speech.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 3, there will be a talk to the German voters in the city hall on the west side by Hon. R. U. Pors of Marshfield. Those who wish to hear the political situation explained in the German language should not fail to be present.

Stomach Paralysis

Dyspepsia or indigestion, properly named, is Paralysis of the Stomach. When you have water-brash, feel sick at the stomach, have gas or wind on it, or feel as though you had a ball or heavy weight in the pit of the stomach after eating, and the nerves and muscles of that organ cease to act and digest your food, that stoppage in the process of digestion, to call it properly, is Paralysis of the Stomach, and should be treated as such. It is perfectly safe to assist the stomach with dyspepsia remedies and stimulants to dissolve the undigested food. You may get relief, but at the next meal you suffer again. The proper treatment is to build up the stomach out of its own power, and not work without assistance, and not only digest the food you eat today but tomorrow and forever after; as is done by the use of Dr. Charles H. McElwee's Nerve Food and Liver Food, which have an immediate action on the nerves and muscles, that control digestion. The price of the Nerve Food is $1.00 per bottle; the Liver Food 50 cents. Both by mail, 10% discount. Sold and guaranteed by John E. Daly Drug & Jewelry Co.

"Let us Forget."

"The best of the La Follette managers that thousands of 'Bryan democrats' in Wisconsin will support the little cause in the state campaign this fall prompts The Menasha Citizen to recall some pertinent political history. It remembers that one afternoon, during the campaign of 1900, Mr. La Follette, escorted by patriots great and small, visited Menasha in a special train. He spoke to the people from a stand in the public square. Crowds of democrats stood respectfully round him.

The Citizen says: This vital, national standard, therefore, set in the stand with him, and not a word of his exhortation of William J. Bryan. Don't you remember? You stood there, you, the often defeated, often discouraged, but ever true and faithful democrats of Menasha and heard the bitterness of the bitterest tongue in Wisconsin poured out upon Bryan, whom you, of Menasha loved, honored and respected; whom you still love, honor and respect.

"Will you elect as president a dangerous agitator, who will destroy the business interests of the country?" cried Mr. La Follette, "one whose hand is against every man who has laid up a few dollars against a rainy day?"

So he raged on against all that democrats held sacred. A poor old man, too drunk to merit anything but pity, uttered a muffled exclamation in the crowd. The speaker turned the stream of invective from Bryan to the old man, until some one hustled him away. We wish it were possible to record that any regard for the principles and feelings of our people appeared. We wish it could be said that one word was left unsaid which could aid in the defense of Mr. Bryan and the humiliation and mortification of Mr. Bryan's friends.

But it cannot be said. Hundreds of you stood there silently listening, shocked, quivering under the lash, wounded in your tenderest political sympathies by that merciless tongue.

After two years Mr. La Follette began casting about for democratic votes. What was the bait offered? You were told in circular and speech that he was treading in the footsteps of Bryan—of Bryan against whom he had warned the public two years before, as a "dangerous agitator." His press bureau smugly compared him with the great democrat from Nebraska. And then he began that series of promises which still goes on. This fall a great and powerful section of his own party have absolutely broken with the governor. The details of the struggle were neither moral nor edifying to the friends of good government. As Mr. La Follette steps forward from the dainty fight, with a stalwart air in his teeth, he is a strange figure to embody the lofty ideals of politics of which we hear so much in his speeches. Again his appeals are interspersed with glorifications of Roosevelt and his benign policy!

The Primary Election Law. For the past nine weeks the primary election law has been published regularly in The Tribune and we have no doubt that there is not a man, woman or child of the seven thousand readers of this paper who by this time could not repeat it by heart. Sit. It is a noticeable fact that the oftener a thing of this kind is brought before the people the less apt they are to read it. It is well known that the first party to recommend a primary election law in this state was the democrats, and at the present time there are very few opposing it in that party. The strongest opponents there are to the law seems to be the stalwarts and the press of this faction are strongly advocating the defeat of the law.

The Tribune is in favor of giving the law a trial. It may have many flaws as the stalwarts say, it has, and may it not be that it certainly cannot have any more than the present system. As to the argument that there is no hope for a poor man getting an office under the primary law, will say that it is no such thing for a poor man even at the present time. At least, both sides are using some money, and somebody must pay the fiddler. The passage of the primary election law is up to the voters themselves and every man should read the law carefully and then vote on the matter the way that he thinks is right.

"Republican Reform."

The talk of some of these republicans who want to see La Follette elected to the office of governor makes the person who has followed the career of the republican party for the past twenty years tired. The republicans have practically been in power in the state of Wisconsin ever since it was admitted to the Union, and up to date they have never done anything toward righting any of the wrongs that have existed during that time. Now they are praying the voters to elect a republican governor this fall and give them just two years more, and they will accomplish in that time all the things they have neglected to do during the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Well, you need not worry about the republicans and what they promise to do. They have proven themselves either unable or else disinclined to do it. As to the primary election law, that matter is up to the people to say what shall be done; and is entirely out of the hands of the governor or legislature, and regarding a rate commission, there is little question but what one will be established if the democrats win out. Then there are some other things that the democrats promise to do, if elected, and that is to very materially reduce the expenses to the state by cutting off a large share of the game wardens and all inspectors that have been drawing such nice fat salaries with an expense account nearly as luscious. This one thing, the maintenance of such a gigantic political machine as the government has established by his appointments along this line, should appeal to every honest man and cause him to put him out of office. It is simply as easy as using the people's money to keep him in office, and should not be tolerated.

Do the People Want Him.

Kempf, the man who has been misappropriating the funds of the state, will be a candidate for reelection not withstanding the fact that he is not what people are looking for in a state treasurer. However, it is not at all probable that a majority of the people will vote for him. Even the governor himself is advising the people to turn the rascal out when they go to the polls next week. But then he could do little else. He made it so he could not hold the office any longer and he can do little else but advise the people to vote against him. It is entirely probable that Kempf will be turned down cold, as he should be.

The halfbreeds are getting most of their consolation these days by calling the democrats stalwarts. Ordinarily they call us populists. Well it's all right. The reason they are indulging in this is because certain republicans have signified their intention of voting for Geo. W. Peck, considering him a better man for the office than Bob La Follette. Now the democrats put up the best man they could find when they nominated Mr. Peck, and if any republicans want to vote for him they are welcome to. We consider Mr. Peck is a good enough man for any man to vote for no matter what his political belief, and as a majority of the best men in the county have announced their decision of voting for him, it must be that there are a large number of people who think the same as we do.

Democrats should not permit differences of opinion over the primary election act to interfere with their support of the state ticket. As Col. Vilas said at Milwaukee it is not an issue between the parties. It is for the voters to act upon, not as partisans but as citizens with no other obligation than desire to do that which is right.

The Reporter says that the froth has blown off the campaign. If the Reporter man had done as much campaigning during his life time as the local candidates have in the last three weeks he would know that the froth had been blown off several times long before this.

Mad Dog Scare

A small black dog was discovered running about the streets on the east side this morning by the police, and as it was acting in rather a mysterious manner, pitching onto other dogs and getting into fights without regard to the size of its antagonist, the police decided that the animal was suffering from hydrophobia. He was followed and eventually shot, but not until several dogs had been bitten. Since the mad dog scare some time ago it has been necessary for a canine to conduct himself in a very decorous manner if he wishes to run at large on the streets.

Stevens Point Boats.

A crowd of boys consisting of the second football team of the high school and their friends went to Stevens Point on Saturday and played an eleven from that city. The local team won the game by a score of 12 to 0, and came home jubilant over their victory.

Sneak Thieves at Work.

A sneak thief entered the home of F. Boyanowsky on Thursday evening and stole a purse containing $19 from one of the closets. The man was seen as he was making his exit but not plain enough to get a description of him. The police have been unable to locate the culprit.

Eggs to be Expensive.

Commission men state the highest price ever known for eggs is in sight for this winter and before the "lay" of the hen is known again next spring housewives will have paid as high as 50c per dozen for the product of the hen. The fact that a corner practically exists in storage eggs and that these were secured at the highest prices ever paid for storage eggs is given as the basis of calculation.

At present time commission men are paying 10c for eggs, and the best are being retailed at 20c. All during the spring and summer when eggs usually go for less than 12c per dozen the price has never gone lower than 10c and has held most of the time at 18c and 20c. Brief periods of high prices have heretofore been known when snowbound roads and disinclined hens have caused prices to go very high, but never before has the long continued high price been maintained.

During the latter part of March and April and early May when storage men usually buy eggs at low prices, there were no eggs bought less than 10c and the majority of the eggs now in storage were bought at 10c. The smaller commission firms withdrew from the market early because of the high price, fearing that there would be little or no profit in buying for storage at such prices. The big firms, such as Armour & Co., Swift & Co., E. B. Simons, the Western Cold Storage company, continued in the market and paid the highest prices for storage eggs ever known. In one week Swift & Co., paid out $5,000,000 for eggs. As a result these firms practically control the egg market and it is not likely that they will unload at any low figure.

"The consumption of eggs is increasing more and more every year," said a commission man. "Especially is this true while meat is high, and this summer the meat strike has induced many people to stop eating meat, and they turn to eggs as a substitute. It is my opinion that the highest prices ever paid for eggs will be along about January or February, 1905, when the storage eggs must be drawn upon for the supply, and the firms which control the market will be almost able to dictate the price."

"Even the big commission firms almost had cold feet last spring, and feared that they were going to lose money on storage eggs, but when they saw the smaller firms withdrawing from the market they began buying with all their might to get control of the market and they did."

Wine of Cardui Cured Her.

213 South Prior Street, ATLANTA, GA., March 21, 1903.

I suffered for four months with extreme nervousness and lassitude. I had a sinking feeling in my stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, and losing my appetite I became weak and lost my vitality. In three weeks I lost fourteen pounds of flesh and felt that I must find speedy relief to regain my health. Having heard of Wine of Cardui I sent for a bottle and was certainly very pleased with the results. Within three days my appetite returned and my stomach troubled me no more. I could digest my food without difficulty and the nervousness gradually diminished. Nature performed her functions without difficulty and I am once more a happy and well woman.

A Fountain Pen

Would be a mighty handy thing to have in your vest pocket if the blamed thing did not leak, but the most of them leak. Still there is one kind that it is not troubled in this way, and that is Mooney's Self Filling Fountain Pen.

Whenever you have time, step into Hirzy's Jewelry store at the east end of the bridge and it will take him only a few minutes to demonstrate that the Mooney Self Filler is a wonder in the line of pens. Can be filled in one second without inking the hands. Nothing to unscrew. Will write until the last drop is used and never flood; just the kind of a pen for a business man or others who have been looking for a first class pen. Costs no more than the ordinary kind, and much better.

From One who Knows. The following statement from Mr. J. H. Healy, of the Grand Rapids, Mich., of the Commercial Drug Store, Lincoln, Ill., will be of interest to readers in this locality. He says: "I have known and sold Harts' Honey and Horchard for several years and believe it to be one of the best cough preparations on the market.
